

Cloud-Native Data Loss Prevention for zendesk

Nightfall for Zendesk is the easiest to use and most accurate data leak prevention (DLP) platform powered by AI. As a data security and compliance platform that helps find and protect your most sensitive data, including PII, PHI, Secrets and Keys, etc, customers can confidently use Zendesk. Not only that, Nightfall enables customers to stay continuously compliant with leading standards such as HIPAA, SOC 2, ISO 27001, and others.. Integrate in minutes with to instantly protect your data and prevent breaches. Save time with real-time alerts, automated remediation actions, and pre-built detection templates to ensure you spend less time managing security alerts.

How Nightfall for Zendesk Works

Discover

Integrate with Zendesk in one click without agents to scan your instance

Classify

Scan for PCI, PII, PHI, credentials & secrets using machine learning detectors out of the box

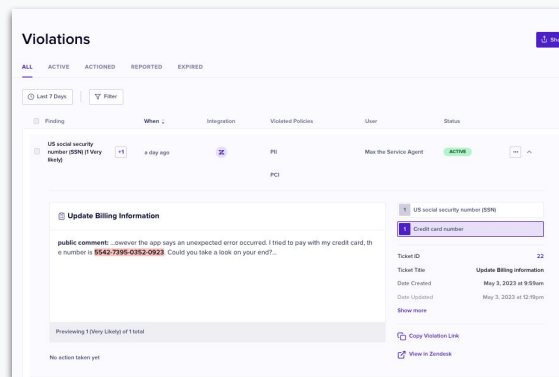

Protect

Use automated and manual remediation actions to mitigate risk from your Zendesk instance

Key Features

- Automatically detect 100+ types of PII, credentials & secrets, including API keys and certificates via Nightfall's ML trained detectors
- Configure Nightfall's Detection Engine with granular detection rules, detector tuning, custom detectors, and OCR file scanning
- Scan all tickets, comments, and file attachments with high accuracy
- Take manual and automated remediations, such as redact or delete an attachment, and mark ticket as private
- Review violations with an intuitive dashboard
- Alert in Slack when new violations are detected and push results to a SIEM, reporting tool, or webhook

Trusted By

